THE WORLD.

FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 23.

SUBSCRIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION

VOL. 29.....NO. 9,957

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-class

Here's a "High-Water Mark."

The Actual Bona-Fide Number Wednesday Nov. 7, 1888, Was # 580,205.

Supt. of Mail and Delivery Dept. W. H. NEWMAN. Foreman Press-Room.

W. H. NEWMAN, Foreman Press-Room of THE Wonld, who, being sworn, do depose and say that the foregoing statement is true and correct. JOHN D. AUSTIN. Commissioner of Deeds.

A Record Never Before Achieved by an American Newspaper.

A LEGALIZED ATROCITY.

Here and now " The Evening World " Legislature for the repeal or amendment of that most tyrannous and unjust law that gives certain organized societies an unrestricted authority to rob any parent of his or her child.

That law was commendable in its intentions. It is most atrocious in many of its operations.

"The Evening World" well knows its workings in the famous Josie Shephard case. Only an extraordinarily persistent effort saved the unfortunate child in that instance-

Judge Lawrence has strongly denounced this tyrannous law from the Bench in another recent case of extreme hardship. His condemnation will be concurred in by fair-minded men everywhere,

It is peculiarly "The Evening World's" task to right this terrible wrong, that has too long been legalized. Confident of the support of the public, it hereby pledges itself to the task.

And "The Evening World" has never falled !

THE BROADWAY HOMICIDE.

The police have not lost time in discovering and arresting the two men who are implicated in the killing of Thomas F. Dunny on Broadway and Fulton street last Sunday afternoon. Inspector BYRNES has in his custody HARRY W. HORNER and HENRY M. BREDEN. They admit that they are the parties who became involved in the unfortunate street broil which cost young Dunne his life.

Of course there was no thought in the mind of Honnes, who struck the fatal blow, of killing or even seriously injuring the deceased. It was a foolish row among young men, and the deceased showed that he considered all the parties equally to blame when he desired the policeman to make no arrests. Yet the law clearly declares the killing homicide in the second degree, the penalty for which is a fine of not more than $1,000 or imprisonment for a term not less than one year nor more than fifteen years, or both fine and imprisonment.

It will thus be seen that a fine alone is regarded by the law as sufficient punishment for some cases of manslaughter in the second degree. It will be for the Court to decide on the evidence whether in this unfortunate affair—as deplorable for the man who struck the blow as for the deceased-a fine alone will satisfy justice,

THE IVINS CASE.

The jury in the suit brought by Mrs. MADOR STONE against WILLIAM M. IVINS came into court this morning with a disagreement. The Judge, in summing up the case, instructed the jury that if they found for the plaintiff it must be on the ground that the defendant, Ivnes, was guilty of a fraud and felony, otherwise their verdict could not be accepted.

It is fair to conclude that this consideration influenced the jury. Yet it should not have done so. It certainly is unjust to refuse the plaintiff her remedy, provided she is legally entitled to recover the amount for which she sued, out of a sentimental unwillingness to pronounce a transaction fraudulent if it actually bore that character. A criminal prosecution would not bring her back the money she needs, and her only chance of obtaining her rights, if her claim is a legal and just one, is through a civil suit such as that which has now miscar-

A disagreement of a jury in such a case is not an additional evidence of the fitness of the defendant to hold the important trust of City Chamberlain, the custodian of the city's

Ought not WILLIAM M. IVINS to resign?

WHY HOT PAY UP?

Now, this is too bad. Here is Col. WILLIAM W. DUDLEY, "Floater DUDLEY," as he is called in Indiana, shirking the debts he has facurred as Treasurer of the Republican National Committee, and putting in obstructive pleas to defeat the alleged creditors who seek to bring him to time in the courts of the city.

Miss Anna Digrinson's suit is one she cought never to have been compelled to bring. She should have been paid without a murmur. Now comes the stereopticon man with an unsatisfied claim of $157.50 for services on election night, and his suit is met by a plea that Col. Dudler is not a resident of this State, but of Indiana.

TO SALVINI THE YOUNGER, Work in "Jim the Penman." The days of the spike-mustached, leering and mouthing to realize—as the world grows more wicked—that villains are real every-day people; that villain have gone by. People are beginning to realize—as the world grows more wicked—that villains are real every-day people; that villains are real every-d this State, but of Indiana.

Considering that Col. DUDLEY is said to have won $100,000 on Harrison's election, is this dodging of election liabilities creditable?

A PEACE-LOVING MONARCH.

The young Emperor of Germany made his was greeted with much show of enthusiasm by the delegates. If his declarations are to be believed, his rule will be modelled on the of "Worlds" Printed and Sold broad, generous principles which his grandfather favored, and his unceasing efforts will be directed towards strengthening the peace of Europe. His alliance with Austria and Italy, he asserts, has no other object,

It will, of course, be gratifying to the other Powers of Europe to find the young Emperor so amicably disposed. But these peaceful professions of European rulers seem to outred before me this 8th day of siders a trifle inconsistent with their acts. A man who goes into the streets with a couple November, 1883, J. B. McGuffin, Superin-endent Mail and Delivery Department, and of revolvers in his belt, a bowie-knife down his back and a club in his hand may announce] that he is anxious to avoid a fight, but to the ordinary wayfarer he appears to adout a singular method of displaying his anti-belligerent sentiments.

Mayor-elect GRANT denies the story that he is about to take a wife. It is said that he denies it "indignantly," but this we unhesi-tatingly pronounce false and slanderous.

The handsome Mayor-elect would never be "indignant" at any inoffensive rumor

the cream of good opinion. I was, as the French say, froissé, and I cannot apty translate the expression. be "indignant" at any inoffensive rumor records its purpose to appeal to the involving a lady. If he is not going to be married it is his own fault, and is perhaps only because he is at present wedded to the ambition to give the city of his birth an honest, vigorous, efficient and practically beneficial government.

> The Beaver breach of promise case continues to amuse the population of that place and produces some hard swearing. Mr. Fay. who is now being broiled by the lawyers, testifies that he never proposed nor intended to marry the plaintiff. But be seems to have followed her pretty closely nevertheless. Naughty man! If he did not mean matrimony why did he run after the widow?

> > OUR AUTOGRAPH COLLECTION.

NOT IN THE WIDOW'S BOND,

The Twenty-third Street Railroad Company, whose friver-conductor John McCormack was killed more than a year age while in the discharge of his double duties, paid the widow $250 and took a release of her widow $250 and took a release of her belima. She brings suit to recover $5,00, asying she did not know she had signed a release. The Company stops the suit by compelling her before proceeding to file a bond for $250 security for costs!

she asks for bread—it is not in the bond! She saks a little cheer to smooth her way Till she may rest her in the great beyond Where wrong and death are not " released " for the hears, with heart that now must needs de-

It is not "in the bond!"

She signed this-" bond" with hand a-tremble

For the last pressure of the hand she loved! She signed the bond with heartstrings all a-thrill With the new grief that never could be old! JUSTICE she asks-the LAW she never conned-

The bells rang merrily—so soon to turn To knells for him who should have been her stay-That morn when he was coldly bid to learn Driver, conductor—all, to be that day, With horses wild, unused and vagabond—

It is not " in the bond!"

That was NOT "in the bond !" The juggernaut rolled on its furious way; No DRIVER who'd another rôle to play Could in that din and press control the reins; A crash, a shrick, the widow's weeds are donned-and was THAT "in the bond?" J. B. P.

WORLDLINGS.

The fastest stenographer in this country is probably Isaac S. Dement, of Chicago, who recently took down 1,387 words in five minutes. A Chicago collector of curios has two silver half-ollars that are declared to be the identical coins that held down the lide of Abraham Lincoln's eyes

William Black, the novelist, is described as a man of medium height, who gives one the impression that he is capable of great physical endur ance. He has short black hair, a thick brown mustache, a dark hazel eye, a firm mouth and a square

President-elect Harrison's residence in Indianapolis is a neat, unpainted, square brick dwelling, comfortably but not elaborately furnished, and situated on one of the most pleasant avenues in the city. The interior of the residence is extremely homelike, and here Gen. Harrison lives in a very quiet and modest way.

Uncle Thomas has been fixed up by the boys during a particularly lethargic sleep and is just about half waked up.

Aunt Bethsaida (coming in)—Now, Thomas Pan-nshi you look jest like what you've allus acted like!"

Two Things That Cannot Acree.
A cough or cold and RIXER'S EXPECTORANT, Insist on having Riber's and you are positively sure of perfect satisfaction. 363 6th are, page 22d at.

As you have a father, and an extremely illustrious father at that, in a state of vigorous terrestrial health, you will probably deny the right of anybody else to feel any paternal interest in you. Somebody of note has declared that it is possible to have too many fathers in this world, and it is very far from first speech to the Reichstag yesterday and my intention to discuss that point. At the present time, however, my dear Alexander, your papa is separated from you by the tumultuous and redoubtable Atlantic, so I see nothing of any serious import to prevent my indulging you with just a little paternal admonition. I should die if I had to strangle all my beautiful fatherly impulses. They well up tempestuously in my bosom, and in their gurgling vehemence demand an exit. Sooner than let my blood be upon your head, I am writing you this letter. Its motive may be misunderstood, but then, you know, motives so frequently suffer in that way that the fact has ceased to be even interesting.

You occupy the important position of leading man in one of the finest stock companies in this city, or in any other city, for the matter of that. To play even minor parts in Mr. A. M. Palmer's Madison Square Theatre organization is something not to be wilfully sueezed at, but to appear prominently, as you do, is the summit of many an actor's ambition. ing man in one of the finest stock companies

I have tried religiously to recognize your fitness for this position. I have seen you twice in the rôle of Borgfeldt in "Partners," twice as Lancelot in "Elaine," and on many other occasions that I cannot call to mind ranshate the expression.

You may have heard of the unfortunate truth stickler, to whom a fond mother showed her cherished first-born. The wretched man was expected to praise the baby. Willingly would be have done it, but he felt that he could not perjure his soul. The child squinted; it had a snub nose; it was as red as a boiled lobster; it looked terribly newborn. He hesitated, he stammered, he blushed. At last an inspiration seized him. Gazing eagerly up at the mother, he exclaimed, "Madame, that child, believe me, will have glorious testh." And, Mr. Salvini, "after viewing your performance in "Part-will have glorious teeth." And, Air. Salvini, after viewing your performance in "Partners, all I could say in your favor was that your make-up was excellent.

You are called upon to play the part of a German business man who has sprung from the people. The outward ceremonies of society are comparatively unknown to him; he relief at the availous tail cost and cannot be relief. ne rebels at the swallow-tail coat and cannot he rebels at the swallow-tail coat and cannot understand the pompous servility of the rather exaggerated butler. But he has a heart of gold; all his instincts are those of an inestable gentleman, and it would be impossible for him to enter any community and remain there long without making friends. He is the soul of honor, and even at times faintly Quixotic. That is the character portrayed by Daudet in his novel, "Fromont Jeune et Risler Ainé," and placed in the play "Partners," by Buchanan.

Risler Ainé," and placed in the play "Partners," by Buchanan.

In your Borgfeldt we see a rearing, ranting individual, who bellows forth his rough-diamondism in just the same way that Hoyt clubs out his humor. There is hardly a trace of delicacy in anything he says or does, and he says or does it all with such intense and ridiculous vehemence that I assure you. Mr. Salvini, I held frantically to my chair whenever he was on the stage. I fancied I saw the chandeliers tremble, and I know that the tympanum of my ear was in jeopardy.

tympanum of my ear was in jeopardy.

Now a German business man, the senior dartner of a reputable banking establishmens. darther of a reputable banking establishment, need not suggest a German sausage-maker, nor a German beer dispenser. It is quite possible to show the rough diamond, is a delicate manner without divesting it of one atom of its effectiveness. I distinctly say that no German business man of Borgfeldt's standing could vessibly resemble your impartments. standing could possibly resemble your impersonation, Mr. Salvini. Borgfeldt has a charming wife. He has had her for some time before the play opens. Surely her remaining presence would have toned down that "voice dread" and abolished the insane chuckle with which you punctuate nearly that "voice dread" and abolished the insane chuckle with which you punctuate nearly every speech.

Have you ever met a German business man? I am afraid you have not had that pleasure. While it is quite possible to find one that is slightly uncouth, you would have to search for a long time before you discovered a person so offensively gesticulatory, so ruthlessly blatant and so flagrantly in disaccord with other people as Borgfeldt in your hands. His grief is simply noise, his passion a deafening outbreak of sound.

I presume that Mr. Palmer has had his chairs strengthened and his sofas fortified, or they would never stand the strain you put upon them when you bang yourself down. It is all so absolutely uncalled for, caro mio (I may as well air my Italian) that there is no reason on earth why you should waste your energies in this manner. Of course, some people are endowed with a superfluous vitality; but they have no right to inflict it upon their neighbors. Let them go to their barns and chop wood. Then, when they have tired themselves out, they can join their families and behave respectably.

Somebody said to me yesterday: "Salvini's Borgfeldt would be great at the Metropolitan Opera-House." I deny that flathy. Your voice might sound less bull-like. That I admit, It would be no praise even to concede that you would be great at the Metropolitan Opera-House. Neither Miss Burroughs, Miss Brookyn, Miss Craddock, Mr. Stoddard nor Mr. Flockton could be seen advantageously there, and in this world it is an undoubted fact that the minority must succumb to the majority. Mr. Palmer's company is admirably adapted to the Madison Square Theatre. You are a member of that company. Therefore there can be no question of your being great auywhere else, just now, at any rate.

But enough of Eorgfeldt. While your Lanceldt in "Flaine" was a fer heater.

guestion of your being great anywhere else, just now, at any rate

But enough of Borgfeldt. While your Lancelot in "Elaine? was a far better performance it was a part that you naturally could not understand, and consequently could not impersonate. Any way the idea of a Lancelot with a Latin accent is absurd. Perhaps you did as much with that role as could have been reasonably expected, though of course I cannot on that account say I liked you in it. I saw you a long time ago in Sosyou in it. I saw you a long time ago in Boston, when you played Claude Duval to Miss Margaret Mather's Pauline. Though some years have passed since that performance I remember distinctly your wildly improbable gestures and the utterly unsympathetic impropersoration you says.

gestures and the litterly unsympathetic impersonation you gave.

And you have talent, my dear Alexander, that no manager can afford to despise. You make one of the best French or Italian villains on the stage. I would strongly recommend you never to play other parts. The stage villain is a character that has been grievously abused in its day. That it can be elevated to the rank of high artistic value is evident to anybody who saw your admirable

Common Sense

In the treatment of catarrh will indicate that local applications can do but little if any good; being a constitutional disease, catarrh requires a constitutional remedy like Bood's Earsatarilla. It attacks at once the source of the disease by partiring and enriching the blood, which in passing through the delicate passages of the mucous membrane soothes and rebuilds the therms, giving them tendency to health instead of disease, and ultimately curing the affection.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is cold by fruggists. S1; six for $6. Prepared by O. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mass.

If only the members of your profession, Mr. If only the members of your profession, Mr. Salvini would make some effort to discover for what they were best fitted and not wint they most wanted, what heartaches would be avoided! I have never yet met a time-honored lady who didn't think she could play an ingenue role, or a superannuated gentleman who didn't despise the "character old man."

It a villain, Salvini, and I believe you will be happy. I know this is in direct opposition to the virtue theory, but in your case, my dear fellow, virtue will, I am convinced, attengracefully sande. Ask your paps what tion to the virtue theory, but in your my dear fellow, virtue will, I am convinced, step gracefully asside. Ask your paps what he thinks of it when he comes over, and for goodness' sake, old man, don't let him see any of your heroics. He happens to know too much about that kind of acting himself.

ALAN DALE.

DRAMATIC GOSSIP.

The Midnight Bell " Is to Be an Interes ing Thing of the Spring.

The production of "A Midnight Bell" at the Bijou Theatre, in the Spring, will be interesting, inasmuch as it is said to be Charles H. Hoyt's first attempt to get away from his usual farce-comedy material, with the exceltion, perhaps, of the opers, "The Maid md the Moonshiner," which he wrote and which Teddy Solomon "compaed." This opera was given at the Standard Theatre two Augusts ago. "A Mdnight Theatre two Augusts ago. "A Mainght Bell" has been produced at the Alcazar Theatre in San Francisco last wingr, where it met with success. It is said to be in the Denman Thompson "Old Homesead" style of architecture. This style of work, it is hardly necessary to say, is being followed very closely, in consequence of its success, by other parties. Nell Burgess's proposed production at the new theatr, which is being built in Twenty-third street is also said to be in the same pastoral line. be in the same pastoral line.

At the end of last weeks company headed by Luke Martin was organized to play "The Leprechaun" through the country. It opened in Richmond Va., Monday night, Yesterday its members were back in the city. It is said that this is not due to any fault in the show, but to a mancial calamity. The company did not wilk back from Richmond.

The definite amouncement that "The Undercurrent" will be withdrawn from Niblo's after Satarday night, to be replaced by "The Two Saters," was no surprise uptown. Several people were fighting for the

The first cky in which "Little Lord Faunt-leroy" will be produced, after New York, will be San Francisco, at the Baldwin

Somebody asked Graves, the comedian, what the recepts were for his opening night in Jersey City. He said $700. The question was put to Hoey. His reply was $900. Harry Mann immediately posted up a call for rehearssl. He said that his comedians must, at any rate, work harmoniously together.

A'ter all it is quite likely that Charles Wadham will come to this city next season. Mr Moore, who is Mr. Wyndham's representative in America, and who has been tavelling in the West for his health, has received instructions from Mr. Wyndham to report in New York at once and look after his interests as far as booking a tour was concerned.

C. N. Gardiner says that Clay M. Greene is making changes in his version of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and that the name will probable be changed, as it is possible to be too Uncle Tommy nowadays. "The Voodoo Queen" has been mentioned as a title, and Mr. Greene, in case it is decided thus to christen the play, will make that part more conspicuous than it is at present.

Gardiner says he has a "Southern society lady" playing in "Fate." Her name is Miss Lee Lamar, the Lee being paternal, the Lamar maternal. Lucky Gardiner!

A special matinée for the children of the A special mathes for the children of the public schools will be given at Dockstader's to-morrow afternoon. "Teacher, teacher!" and Harry Kennedy's life-sized automatons will be worked for all the localisms and linguistic oddities which a ventriloquist can devise for the hilarity of the school children.

Little Walter Perkins, who is playing with "Drifting Apart," at Taunton, Mass., has had a sad experience. His father and mother went to Hartford with him the other day, to see him play there. Before reaching home his mother died from pneumonia. Mr. Perkins had to play while she was dying. "What a hard profession this is," he writes, "when sickness and the death of loved ones have to be borne in such a way, and all our grief covered up. Our business manager played my part on Saturday. I can't tell you what a mockery it seems to play at such a time."

Dogs and Table-Covers Seek an Owner. An owner is wanted at the Thirty-seventa street police station for two dogs, two table-covers, a child's cloak, a pair of gloves and a pair of shoes, supposed to have been stolen.

Answers to Correspondents. S. M. Puller. -- Marion Manola is still with the McCauli Opera Company. P. A. Furlong. -- President Cleveland's vote in New York City was 162, 738.

E. F. A. -The steamship City of New York never belonged to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. I. G.—A history of the United States or the books in the "American Statesmen" series. Burns.—The Vice-President of a club has, we think, a right to wear the presidential badge while he is Acting President. A. F. H.—You eannot be dispossessed except)?

Judgment of the Court, and the proceedings to all
end will take at least three days.

end will take at least three days.

Waperer Ao. 1—Joel B. Erhardt came second in the recent Mayoralty contest, the vote leing:
Grant, 114, 111; Erhardt, 73,637; Hewitt, 11,979;
Coogan, 9,509; Jonas, 2,645.

Frank Nickenhauer,—The Nineteenth Ward is bounded by the East River, East Erhty-sixth street, Fifth avenue down to Fifty-math street;
then Sixth avenue to Fortieth street. FINE CUSTOM TAILORS MISFITS AND UNCALLED FOR CLOTHING, WE OFFER

Senor. -1. You can publish your deign as soon as you have applied for copyright 2. The lithograph can be printed this year. S. You must send your name to Washington win the design.

Mental Depression

Poplonix

Are dissetive tables, carefully compounded from the prescription of a eminent English physician. They set directly ups' the diseasest organs, adding the stomach to disseased properly assimilate food, instantly relieving pain did discounfori.

Rev. A. Haftawar Francis, of 6 Woodville Park, Mt. Picanant and "I I affords me sincers pleasure to any a words favor of Peptonix. I have tried them, and can regimmend them heartily."

SOLD BY DRUGGISTS. Mailed prepaid, on receipt of price, 75 cents per box. THE ALLSTON CO., 67 High Street, Bosto

Wir-Now, John Smith, what on earth did you buy dat chattering parrot for? Instand (absently)-Oh! For a change I sup-

Drom Puck. 1 Tom Bigbee-I say, Upson, what would you do if ou had a million dollars? Upson Downes—Nothing.

A Foregone Conclusion. [From the Toledo Blade.] The suit against Briggs Swift, one of the Cincinnati Fidelity wreckers, was suddenly terminated yesterday and settled. | We might have known Swift would get away. Had Been Done. [ From Life. ] Smith (to milkman)—I'll have to ask you to chalk attended to—oh—er—beg jour pardon; certainly, take your own time. But it Doesn't Do to Pick Them. [From the Terre Haute Express.] "George, dear, what kind of fruit is borne by an electric lights plant?" "Electric currents, of t up. Milkman (abstractedly) - Oh, that's all been

A Chronic Offender

[From Puck.]
"I hear," said Wiggins, "that Scroggs isn't getting along very well with his third wife." "Serves him right!" growled old Bache; "any man who continually repeats the same offense deserves severe punishment!"

[From Puck.] " I'm somewhat astoniahed, Carper," remarke Bigbee, as he looked around the room, "to find that so great a bookworm as you should possess so small a library."

"Ah, my boy," returned the other, "it takes a great deal of reading to find out what isn't worth keeping."

Business Is Business.

[From Time.1 Party in a nurry-Are you Mr. Corbin? Railroad President-Yes, sir. Party in a hurry-Read that President—1es, sir. Farly in a nurry—Read that.
Railroad President (reads)—"The British royal yacht Victoria and Albert will arrive at Flushing on Nov. 12 to convey Empress Frederick to England." Well? Party in a hurry—What'il you give me on excursion rates if 1 get up parties to come up from Gien Cove, Sea Cliff and Bayside to see the old lady off?

A Chicago Mystery.

[From Fine.] ness as steep this winter as you did last, Kate?" asked Miss Chicago of her friend Miss St. Louis. "Not by a long shot," replied Miss Kate emphatically. "A reaction has struck our Browning Club, as I knew it would. We've voted to chees Browning and have some of our good, old-fashioned taffy-pullings and cotillon and cuchraparties this Winter. How we ever got drawn intend Browning snap is a mystery to me, anyhow."

Young Housekeeren - We sympathize withyour troubles, and trust that attention to the fol owing hints will soon wean Charlie from his restaurant din ner:

Don't ever try to bake your bacon. Names are Remove the shells from your hard-boiled ega-after they are cooked. It this is done before ting them in the water the result is not en ur-aging.

When you get a baker's pie always ask for can opener with it.

Never soak a Hamburger steak in wer over night. It is neither saited nor smoked, sowever the seasoning may have deceived you.

Canned soup is excellent—if never then out of the can.

Depression

Q Mind.

Of all the diseases, the nervous system which affile humanity, none is one distressing or causes more miscry than desponders and depression of the mind. The sufferer is in great terture than one who suffers more bodily pain; it that anguish of the mind, a weighing pressure, a sets of anxiety and gloom. With this pressure, a sets of anxiety and gloom. With this "blue" feet there is often nervousness or irritability with restles and wakeful nights, and the person feet dull, dispoted, weak, tired, nerveless or exhausted.

All this caused by an exhausted condition of nerveless to power, and can be perfectly cured by Dr. All this caused by an exhausted condition of nerve force as power, and can be perfectly cured by Dr. Greep's Nervura Nerve Tonic, which is for sale by all druggests at $1 per bottle. It is nature's true brain and near restorative. Try it, nervous sufferer, and you will be urprised at its wonderful effect.

Dr. Greene's Nervura Nerve Tonic Contain go injurious drazs whatever, but is guaran-teed purely vezetable and perfectly harmless If any druggist tells you otherwise, he de-ceives you simply to make you buy his own preparation.

Dr Greene, its discoverer, is the well known specialist in the cure of nervous and obronic discovers, and he can be consulted free of charge at his office, 36 West lethal., New York, personally or by letter.

5,000 OVERCOATS,

1,000 SUITS IMP. CANSIMERE AND WORSTED, FROM $4.00; WORTH $16.00.

5,000 PANTS, from 75c. up. 1,000 Single VESTS, from 75c. un.

MISFIT CLOTHING PARLOR,

BATISFACTION GUARANTEED OR MONEY

REFUNDED.

NOS. 1 AND 3 PRINCEST, NEAR BOWERY. BOTANIC SALBAM, KINGMAN, 504b et. 204 4th eve

STARTLING.

London and Liverpool Clothing Co.,

86 and 88 BOWERY.

WILL BE COMPELLED TO CLOSE

A VERY FEW DAYS

on account of rebuilding our present store.

OUR STOCK MUST GO.

THE PRICES WE QUOTE BELOW Would not pay for the labor of making, say nothing of the material. 1,600 Chinchilla Overcoats, reduced from $15.00 to $5.50. 2,000 Whitney Overcoats, reduced from $:6.00 to $5.50. 1,100 Chinchilla Overcoats, reduced from $20.00 to $7.50. 600 Chinchilla Overcoats, reduced from $25.00 to $9.60. 850 Kersey Overcoats, reduced from $28.00 to $11.80.

EVERY GARMENT TAKOR-MADE,

and of our own majufacture.

LONDON & LIVERPOOL

BOYS' CLOTHING STOCK

Will also sacrice their entire

at such prices as mut interest every parent in NEW YORK. JUST FANCE :

$8.00, $9.00 and $0.00 Overcoats at $1.90, $2.90 and $3.85. Such prices vould not half pay for the material.

LONDON & LIVERPOOL

will sell fip imported Merino Underwear at 25 cents on the dollar.

Meps Scarlet Undershirts, medicated, 59c. and 88c.

housands of elegant Silk and Satin Scarfs at 20c. ve have only a few more of these elegant Silk Embroidered Suspenders, silver buckles and solid silk ends, cost from $1.00 to $1.50 to make:

39c. IS OUR PRICE.

HATS! HATS! HATS! HATS!

All our $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00 Hats will be sold at 59c., 99c. and $1.20.

OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK.

LONDON & LIVERPOOL CLOTHING CO.,

86 and 88 Bowery, cor. Hester St.

C. L. Binnings, of Newport; J. F. Patterson, of Richmond; W. F. Carr, of Cleveland, and C. B. Woodward, of Great Bend, Miss., are at the Bar-tholdi.

tholdi.

Frominent at the Fifth Avenue are E. G. Scripture, of Boston; C. N. Fort, of Albany: Frank Bultley Smith, of Worcester, Mass., and W. A. Adriance, of Foughkeepsie.

Registered at the Albemarie are H. L. Miller, of Pitsburg; Joseph A. Issigi, of Boston; W. O. Heghert, of Grand Rapids, and A. E. Sumner, of Cleveland.

Among the Hoffman House guests are S. P. Warawell, of Boston; Maurice McMicken, of Seattle, W. T.; Baron von Roeder, of Germany, and E. L. Martin, of Chicago. and E. L. Martin, of Chicago.

Autographs on the St. James register include those of W.R. Clarkson, of Baffalo; J. T. Garrett, of Omaha; T. B. Mitward, of Lechdale Manor, England, and C. S. Sheehy, of Detroit.

At the Branswick are S. B. Dana, of Boston; G. D. Rogs, of Montreal; Fred P. Vinton, of Boston; Allison V. Armour, of Chicago, and E. H. Hippie, of Cleveland.

At the Sturtevant House are R. A. Montooth, of Pittaburg; W. York Atlee, of Wasnington; Dr. J. P. Perkins, of Baltimore, and J. H. Flynn, of Buffalo. George Crawford, of Pittaburg; R. P. Hoilster, of Buffalo; R. Swarnick, of Saratoga; J. T. Sargent, of Cleveland, and Prof. J. A. Baldwin, of Cleveland, are at the Glisey House.

At the Grand Hotel are A. C. Peekish, of Balti-more; G. W. Daly, of Philadelphia; W. F. Gard-ner, of Wassington: Marc B. Gay, of Boston, and J. J. Maddox, of Troy.

Among the Workers. The Bullding Trades and Furniture-Workers sections meet to-night at 145 Eighth atreet. Philadelphia union men and Knights of Labor are moving to organize a Central Labor Union.

Mr. Cariton's initeage, postage and carriage hills white a member of the General Executive Board of the Knights of Labor have astonished the Order. It is said by Knights in this city that Mr. Barry's bilis are equally interesting. Edward Finkelstone's open letter to the German Home Club amuses the Socialists, in view of the fect that he was of them and for them once upon of

There are 485 canning-bouses in Maryland and 25,000 employees, while 1,500 make their living as can-makers. Most of these are Knights of Labor and have a scale which protects their labor.

La Fiancie-Do you know, Clarence dear, that when you gave me your first kies I was so astonished that I nearly went crazy!

Clarence—Ah, yes, darling! I should have known better than to give you only one.

Mies Agnes Is Just Eighteen A reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Lane, 209 East Fifty-second street, ist honor of the eighteenth anniversary of the birth of their daughter, Agnes Rose. Many friends were present, and the affair was delightfully pleasant.

Annual ball of Hanover's Dancing Academy, this evening, at Webster Hall. svecing, at Webster Hall.

Second annual ball of the Young Ivy Pleasure Club at Walballa Hall, 46-52 Orolard street, Friday evening, Dec. 7.

Third annual reception of Furman's Daneing Academy at Covenant Hall, 56 Orohard street, Saturday evening, Nov. 34.

Annual reception of the J. J. Shea Association at Parepa Hall. Sighty-sixth street and Tuird avenue, Monday evening, Dec. 10.

Coming Events.

Annue! bail of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, New York County, at Ferrero's Assembly Rooms, Fourteenth street, near Third avenue, this Friday evening, Nov. 22.